

Tuscola Students Place Top 10 In The State At The NC FBLA State Leadership Conference

Three Tuscola students placed top 10 in the state in their competitive event at the North Carolina Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) State Leadership Conference, which was held in Greensboro on March 22-24, 2012.

Edward Donnahoe (left) competed in Introduction to Technology Concepts, Alexandria Lahm (middle) placed 3rd in Business Law, and Ashley Ramsey (right) competed in Personal Finance. Alexandria Lahm qualified to compete in the FBLA National Leadership Conference to be held in San Antonio, TX on June 29 – July 2, 2012.

FBLA is a Career and Technical Student Organization in which students are given further opportunity to develop character, citizenship, technical leadership, and teamwork – all skills that are essential for the workforce and/or further education.