

Tuscola High School Summer Reading 2014-2015

Rising English I- Lord of the Flies- William Golding

Rising English II- All Quiet on the Western Front- Erich Remarque

Rising English III- Fahrenheit 451- Ray Bradbury

Rising English IV- 1984- George Orwell

Rising Honors English I-

Lord of the Flies- William Golding

A Separate Peace- John Knowles

The Taming of the Shrew- William Shakespeare

Rising Honors English II-

All Quiet on the Western Front- Erich Remarque

My Forbidden Face- Latifa

Julius Caesar- William Shakespeare

Rising Honors English III-

Fahrenheit 451- Ray Bradbury

Frankenstein (1818 Edition)- Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley

Macbeth- William Shakespeare

Rising Honors English IV-

1984- George Orwell

Pride and Prejudice- Jane Austen

King Lear- William Shakespeare

Rising AP Language and Composition- 11th Grade-

Fahrenheit 451- Ray Bradbury

Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass- Frederick Douglass

Frankenstein (1818 Edition)- Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley

Macbeth- William Shakespeare

Rising AP Literature and Composition- 12th Grade-

1984- George Orwell

How to Read Literature Like a Professor- Thomas Foster

Mythology- Edith Hamilton

King Lear- William Shakespeare

You will be tested on required summer reading during the first 2 weeks of school. This will count 10% for the first 9 weeks. We have several titles available in the school store for purchase. Blue Ridge Books has all titles currently stocked (ask for your discount). Amazon has very inexpensive used copies for sale and several titles are free on Project Gutenberg.org. See your English teacher if you want to borrow a book for the summer.